

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1304

To promote strategic sourcing principles within the Federal Government.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 16 (legislative day, JULY 15), 2013

Mr. BEGICH introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

A BILL

To promote strategic sourcing principles within the Federal Government.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Buy Smarter and Save
5 Act of 2013”.

6 SEC. 2. GOALS FOR STRATEGIC SOURCING OF FEDERALLY
7 PROCURED GOODS AND SERVICES.

8 (a) REQUIREMENT TO ESTABLISH GOALS FOR PUR-
9 CHASES AND SAVINGS USING STRATEGIC SOURCING.—
10 The President shall establish—

1 (1) an annual Government-wide goal to procure
2 goods and services using strategic sourcing, in ac-
3 cordance with this section; and

4 (2) an annual Government-wide goal for savings
5 resulting from the use of strategic sourcing, in ac-
6 cordance with this section.

7 (b) AMOUNT OF PROCUREMENT GOAL.—

8 (1) IN GENERAL.—The goal for procurement of 9 goods and services established under subsection (a)
10 shall be—

11 (A) in each of fiscal years 2014 and 2015, 12 at least $100,000,000,000; and

13 (B) in each of fiscal years 2016, 2017, and 14 2018, at least $75,000,000,000.

15 (c) AMOUNT OF SAVINGS GOAL.—The goal for sav-
16 ings resulting from the use of strategic sourcing estab-
17 lished under subsection (a) shall be—

18 (1) in each of fiscal years 2014 and 2015, at 19 least $10,000,000,000; and

20 (2) in each of fiscal years 2016, 2017, and 21 2018, at least $7,500,000,000.

1 SEC. 3. IMPLEMENTATION OF STRATEGIC SOURCING
2 GOALS BY OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND
3 BUDGET.

4 (a) GUIDANCE BY OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND 5 BUDGET.—The Director of the Office of Management and 6 Budget shall issue guidance to executive agencies for im-
7 plementing the goals established under section 2. The Di-
8 rector, in consultation with the heads of executive agen-
9 cies, may set specific goals for procurement and savings
10 that are customized to individual executive agencies.

11 (b) MATTERS COVERED.—In the guidance issued
12 under subsection (a), the Director shall include, at a min-
13 imum, the following:

14 (1) Criteria for the goods and services to be 15 procured using strategic sourcing, consistent with 16 the considerations described in subsection (c).

17 (2) A description of the specific data required
18 to be submitted by executive agencies to the Director
19 regarding implementation of the goals.

20 (3) Guidance on calculating and verifying sav-
21 ings generated from strategic sourcing.

22 (4) Standards to measure progress towards 23 meeting savings goals.

24 (5) Procedures to hold agencies accountable
25 and ensure that agencies are achieving their stra-
26 tegic sourcing goals.

1 (6) Procedures to ensure that an agency is not
2 making purchases that significantly exceed the re-
3 quirements of the agency.

4 (7) A list of existing Government-wide strategic 5 sourcing vehicles.

6 (c) CONSIDERATIONS.—In developing the guidance
7 issued under this section, the Director shall take into con-
8 sideration the application of strategic sourcing in a man-
9 ner that—

10 (1) maintains a strong industrial and manufac-
11 turing base in the United States;

12 (2) is consistent with international trade agree-
13 ments;

14 (3) accounts for the benefits as well as the costs
15 of procuring goods and services;

16 (4) emphasizes the procurement of goods and 17 services that are procured repetitively, procured Gov-
18 ernment-wide and in large amounts, and are non-19 technical and commercial in nature;

20 (5) allows for easy conduct of a spend analysis
21 under section 4(b); and

22 (6) reflects the requirements of the Small Busi-
23 ness Act, including the provisions addressing con-
24 tract bundling, contract consolidation, and the need
25 to achieve the statutory small business prime contracting and subcontracting goals in section 15 of that Act (15 U.S.C. 644).

3 (d) RELATIONSHIP TO FEDERAL STRATEGIC
4 SOURCING INITIATIVE.—In issuing guidance under this
5 section, the Director shall take into account and be con-
6 sistent with the Federal Strategic Sourcing Initiative man-
7 aged by the Office of Federal Procurement Policy.

8 (e) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after the end
9 of a fiscal year for which a goal is established under sec-
10 tion 2, the Director shall submit to Congress a report on 11 the implementation of this Act. The report shall include,
12 at a minimum—

21 SEC. 4. STRATEGIC SOURCING DUTIES OF COVERED DE-
22 PARTMENTS.

23 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of a covered de-
24 partment shall take the following actions to support stra-
25 tegic sourcing efforts in the department:

1 (1) Establishment of department-wide goals and
2 savings targets for strategic sourcing efforts in sup-
3 port of the goals established under section 2.

4 (2) Establishment of a strategic sourcing ac-
5 countability official within the department.

6 (3) Issuance of a policy that outlines the role,
7 authority, and responsibilities of the strategic 8 sourcing accountability official and department prac-
9 tices for strategic sourcing.

10 (4) Identification of department-specific stra-
11 tegic sourcing contracts already in use and establish-
12 ment of utilization goals for current and future stra-
13 tegic sourcing efforts.

14 (5) Development of standards to track and as-
15 sess compliance with the goals established under sec-
16 tion 2, consistent with the guidance and consider-
17 ations under section 3.

18 (b) SPEND ANALYSIS REQUIREMENT.—Not later
19 than six months after the date of the enactment of this 20 Act, and in accordance with the guidance and consider-
21 ations under section 3, the Secretary of a covered depart-
22 ment shall conduct a spend analysis of procurements by 23 the department during fiscal year 2012 to identify, assess, 24 and quantify goods and services suitable for strategic 25 sourcing. Based on the analysis, the Secretary shall select,

1 for implementation in fiscal year 2014, at least one good
2 or service to strategically source from among the top 20
3 procurement spending categories for commercial goods
4 and services that are identified in the analysis as suitable
5 for strategic sourcing.

6 SEC. 5. STUDY AND REPORT BY COMPTROLLER GENERAL.

7 (a) STUDY ON CONTRACT UTILIZATION FEES.—The 8 Comptroller General of the United States shall conduct 9 a study to assess the effect of contract utilization fees on 10 the use of multiple agency contracts, including strategic 11 sourcing vehicles using multiple award schedules, and
12 shall submit a report on the results of the study to Con-
13 gress not later than one year after the date of the enact-
14 ment of this Act.

15 (b) STUDY ON ESTABLISHING CONTRACT VEHIC-
16 LES.—The Comptroller General shall conduct a study to 17 examine the cost of establishing each of the current Fed-18 eral strategic sourcing initiative contract vehicles, and
19 shall submit a report on the results of the study to Con-
20 gress not later than one year after the date of the enact-
21 ment of this Act.

22 (c) ANNUAL REPORT ON IMPLEMENTATION OF 23 ACT.—

24 (1) ASSESSMENTS.—Each year, the Comptroller
25 General shall assess—

(A) the performance of executive agencies in implementing the strategic sourcing goals required by this Act; and

8 (2) REPORT.—The Comptroller General shall 9 submit a report on the results of the assessment to 10 Congress not later than one year after the date of 11 the enactment of this Act and annually thereafter
12 while the goals are in effect.

13 SEC. 6. DEFINITIONS.

14 In this Act:

15 (1) EXECUTIVE AGENCY.—The term “executive
16 agency” has the meaning given the term “Executive
17 agency” in section 105 of title 5, United States
18 Code.

1 Services, the General Services Administration, and 2 the Small Business Administration.

3 (3) STRATEGIC SOURCING.—The term “stra-
4 tegic sourcing” means a structured and collaborative
5 process of critically analyzing an organization’s
6 spending patterns to better leverage its purchasing
7 power, reduce costs, and improve overall value and 8 performance.
